

Itinerary for Bhaktapur Darbar Square Day Tour Package

Day 1: Full-day Bhaktapur sightseeing.

Morning:

Your day of exploration begins with the first rays of the sun, as you're picked up by a private vehicle to immerse yourself in the wonders of Bhaktapur. The journey commences at Bhaktapur Durbar Square, a UNESCO World Heritage Site that serves as an open-air museum. Traverse through centuries-old palaces, courtyards, and royal baths, marveling at the intricate sculptures, pagodas, and Shikhara style temples that stand testament to the city's medieval grandeur. The Golden Gate, 55 Window Palace, and Vatsala Temple reveal the artistic excellence of a bygone era.

Late Morning:

As the morning unfolds, make your way to the Traditional Painting School, a haven for the dying art of Nepal. Witness skilled artisans at work, preserving ancient techniques that make for unique and meaningful souvenirs. The air is filled with creativity as you absorb the essence of this traditional craft..

Afternoon:

In the afternoon, venture towards the captivating Changunarayan Temple, the oldest temple in the Kathmandu Valley. Dating back to 467 AD, this architectural gem is nestled in a spacious courtyard adorned with priceless stone sculptures. Explore the temple's historical and cultural significance, delving into the ancient writings etched on copper plates and stone slabs from the 4th to 9th century A.D.

Evening:

As the day winds down, take a leisurely stroll through Bhaktapur's narrow lanes, absorbing the local ambiance and perhaps discovering hidden gems. Conclude your day with a visit to Pottery Square, where skilled hands shape clay into intricate forms, offering a glimpse into the artisanal traditions of the city.

Departure:

Bid farewell to Bhaktapur with a private vehicle transfer, leaving behind a day filled with UNESCO World Heritage Sites, ancient temples, and the rich tapestry of Nepalese art and culture.

Package: Bhaktapur Darbar Square Day Tour

Email: info@masterhimalaya.com

Phone Number: +977-9801099972 / +977-9801099975